

I would like to protest on ythe FCC's decision to cut reimbursement rates to VRS (Video Relay Service) providers. Cutting services like this is like having the phone company turn off the system during the night so that no one can make calls. I, greatly depend on VRS and sometimes I make calls as late as midnight. Cutting the reimbursement rates will affect me as a public person and a tax payer.